MARSHAL KILLS PRISONER.

John Golden, Miner, Fought Officer and Was Shot.

Springfield, Ill., March 1 .- As the result of an attack made this afternoon by John Golden, a coal miner, upon George Johnson, Marshal of the village of Cantral.

Golden now lies dead at his home in Can-The coal miner had been arrested for creating a disturbance. He resisted when first taken in charge by the Marshal, but after being struck several blows agreed to go to fall without further resistance. No other trouble was had with him until the officer was ready to lock him up. Golden then again attacked the officer, and had him at his mercy when Johnson drew his probler and fired. The buffet lodged in the region of Golden's heart, and he died a half hour later.

The Marshal then came to Springfield and surroundered himself to the Sheriff.
